WONDERFUL COUNSELOR

Rev. Roderick Cummings

Isaiah 9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:6, a verse often read during the Christmas season, holds profound significance in its portrayal of the Messiah. We will delve into the title "Wonderful Counselor" to uncover the wisdom and guidance that Jesus brings to our lives.

The term "Wonderful Counselor" is both an affirmation of the extraordinary nature of Jesus and a revelation of His role in our lives. As a counselor, Jesus stands as the ultimate source of wisdom, guidance, and understanding. His counsel is unlike any other, for it is rooted in perfect love, divine knowledge, and unfathomable grace.

In a world filled with uncertainty and countless choices, we often seek counsel from friends, family, or professionals. While their guidance may be valuable, the counsel of the Wonderful Counselor surpasses all. He knows the depths of our hearts, understands our struggles, and provides wisdom beyond human comprehension. When we face life's dilemmas, we can turn to Him with confidence, knowing that His counsel is both perfect and trustworthy.

Jesus, as the Wonderful Counselor, doesn't just offer advice; He offers transformation. His counsel leads us on a path of righteousness, peace, and joy. It is His counsel that brings light to our darkest moments, hope to our despair, and clarity to our confusion. When we abide in His wisdom, we find our lives aligned with God's purpose, and our decisions guided by His truth.

Furthermore, the term "Wonderful Counselor" reminds us of the awe-inspiring nature of Christ's counsel. His wisdom is not bound by human limitations but is truly marvelous. When we meditate on His teachings and seek His guidance through prayer and scripture, we can't help but be amazed at the depth of His understanding and the brilliance of His counsel.

As we reflect on Isaiah 9:6 and the title "Wonderful Counselor," let us remember that Jesus is always available to offer His counsel. In times of joy and sorrow, in moments of confusion and clarity, He is there, ready to guide us with His wisdom. May we approach Him with open hearts and open ears, eager to receive the counsel that brings transformation and leads us closer to the heart of God.

Prayer:

Thank you, Lord, for being, no matter what the season is, our Wonderful Counselor! In Jesus' Name. Amen.
